

FUNDING FOR GRADUATE SUMMER FIELDWORK

IRIS GRADUATE STUDENT SUMMER FIELDWORK AWARD

The Institute for Regional and International Studies (IRIS) is offering one-time awards of $3,000 to be used in support of 6 or more weeks of summer fieldwork conducted outside the United States. Any continuing graduate student at the University of Wisconsin-Madison is eligible to apply.

BLAC FOUNDATION SUPPLEMENTAL AWARD:

In collaboration with the Black Languages Arts and Culture Foundation (BLAC Foundation), IRIS is pleased to offer a $1,000 supplemental grant to students pursuing international field research in the global south on topics related to art, language, or culture. Applicants for research on the Mvet musical tradition in Equatorial Guinea will receive priority consideration.

DEADLINE 2/14/24

JOIN US FOR AN EVENING CELEBRATING IRIS/BLAC FOUNDATION AWARD WINNERS

12/06/23
5:00 - 6:30 pm
206 Ingraham Hall

- MEET FORMER AWARDEES & LEARN MORE ABOUT THE AWARD
- LEARN MORE ABOUT THE BLAC FOUNDATION
- ENJOY REFRESHMENTS

for more information and to apply, visit

go.wisc.edu/fieldwork

questions? email awards@iris.wisc.edu

Institute for Regional and International Studies
INTERNATIONAL DIVISION
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON